

Internationalization Leaders' Network Meeting

Tackling the Big Issues: What is the Role of Canadian Education Leaders?

British Columbia Room, The Westin Ottawa

November 13, 2016
TIME	ITEM	NOTES
5:00 – 6:30p.m.	VIP Reception: The Shore Club, The Westin Ottawa	Remarks by Karen McBride , President and CEO, CBIE and Dr. Larry Rosia , President and CEO, Saskatchewan Polytechnic.

November 14, 2016
TIME	ITEM	NOTES
10:00 – 10:30a.m.	Networking Coffee	Welcoming remarks by Karen McBride and Dr. Larry Rosia .
10:30a.m. – 12:00 noon	International Peace and Security	In part 1, Dr. Gil Latz, President, AIEA and Associate Vice Chancellor for International Affairs, Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis, will discuss the academy's role as advocate for free speech, and how US leaders explore and act on challenges to academic freedom. In part 2, Dr. Steven Davis, Executive Director of Academics without Borders will discuss international peace and security in the developing world and Dr. David Atkinson, President, and Dr. John Corlett, Provost and Vice-President Academic, MacEwan University, will discuss their recent institutional and personal experience with a student victim of international terrorism. In the follow on discussion, participants will explore which essential elements, suggested by good leadership practices, need to be included in a checklist of policies and systems.
12:00 – 1:00p.m.	Lunch Presentation: Changing Lives through the Power of Education	Andrew Barkla , CEO of IDP Education, the world's largest student placement firm and a driver of significant market research, will speak about the power of education to change lives.
1:00 – 2:00p.m.	Brexit: Global Impact and Implications	In part 1, Dr. Hans de Wit, internationalization expert and Director of the Center for International Higher Education, Boston College, will provide a global perspective on potential impacts of Brexit to the EU and North America. In part 2, a UK representative will discuss how British education leaders are dealing with the fallout from the referendum to exit the EU, and what Canadian education leaders can take away from this experience.
2:00 – 2:30p.m.	Health/Smartphone Break

2:30 – 3:30p.m.	International Trade Mobility: Changing Policies	Dr. Stéphane Lambert, Director General, International Trade Strategy, Global Affairs Canada, has been invited to discuss the aspirational agenda of Canada’s trade department under the Liberal government, and how we can prepare our young people to take advantage of growing international labour mobility. The follow on discussion will center on the institutional response to the human capital expectation to achieve this federal mandate.
3:30 – 4:15p.m.	Roundtable discussion: How Political Events Impact and Shape Internationalization	Roundtable discussion on what Canadian leaders can take away from political events and their impact on internationalization, both in terms of the endeavour itself, as well as the institutional level. To close the session, Karen McBride and Dr. Larry Rosia will facilitate a discussion on the future of the ILN: where to next for internationalization leaders in this forum?
4:15 – 4:20p.m.	Closing Remarks	Closing remarks. Karen McBride and Dr. Larry Rosia .