Consent to Disclose Personal Information

I, _____ (first name, last name) allow the Canadian Bureau for International Education (CBIE) to give my name, email address, and other contact information to the Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council (ICCRC) for the following reason:

1. To collect information on the percentage of learners who graduate from ISIEP, and the performance of learners in individual courses within ISIEP.

Connection between the Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council's Requirements and the International Students and Immigration Education Program

As per ICCRC's website: "Federal law requires that immigration practitioners, in Canada or abroad, who provide Canadian immigration services for a fee, must be registered with the ICCRC and accredited as a Regulated International Student Immigration Advisor (RISIA) or a Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant (RCIC). Exceptions are members in good standing of provincial or territorial law societies or the Chambre des notaires du Québec."

To be registered as a RISIA, individuals must write and pass the Entry to Practice Exam (EPE) offered by ICCRC.

By signing below, you acknowledge that you understand that participating in and passing CBIE's International Students and Immigration Education Program (ISIEP):

1. Does not ensure that you will be eligible to write ICCRC's RISIA Entry to Practice Exam. Check your eligibility on ICCRC's website prior to enrolling in ISIEP.
2. Will not confer upon you the RISIA designation. That is, you cannot become a RISIA by participating in and passing the ISIEP. Read the ICCRC Registration Guide for detailed information on RISIA eligibility requirements.

Further, by signing below, you acknowledge that, if you are not eligible to write ICCRC's RISIA EPE, you will not hold CBIE responsible.
