

Evaluation Criteria	Rating Scale
The content is relevant to the field, informative and useful to international education professionals and/or stakeholders.	Up to 15 points
The proposal is thoughtful, well structured, and interesting to the field of international education. The proposal is not focused on marketing or sales of services.	Up to 15 points
The session agenda is well organized. The proposal implies an interactive presentation delivery.	Up to 10 points
The proposal is professionally and clearly articulated, and implies a quality presentation.	Up to 15 points
The learning outcomes are meaningful, clearly identified, and imply professional development for delegates.	Up to 15 points
The presenters' qualifications and experience demonstrate knowledge and expertise on the subject matter.	Up to 15 points
The session content is innovative and brings new ideas and insights to the sector.	Up to 10 points
The title and abstract accurately reflect the proposal content.	Up to 5 points
Bonus points: The session focuses on inclusive internationalization and collaboration across sectors.	Up to 10 points
	Total Maximum of 110